

MDUSD MONDAY MEMO

A Weekly Update of District Activities and Education-related Issues from the Superintendent's Office, Mt. Diablo Unified School District

Update to March 9 Memo

Correction re: Play Boxes

The list of schools printed in yesterday's Monday Memo article about play boxes is not accurate. The elementary sites that are getting new equipment as a result of the Consent Decree settlement regarding play area surfacing are Cambridge, Holbrook, Meadow Homes, Mt. Diablo, Sequoia, Shore Acres, Strandwood, Sun Terrace, Valhalla, Woodside, Wren, and Ygnacio Valley.

My apologies for any confusion yesterday's article may have caused. (Ed.)

$14 million in budget cuts listed on the web

As reported in last week's Monday Memo, on March 3 the Board of Education completed the second round of budget cuts it's had to make this year as a result of the state's economic crisis. Between mid December 2008 and early March 2009, the Board earmarked $14 million worth of items for reduction or elimination, primarily in the 2009-10 budget. The complete list is available on the home page of the District's website: www.mdusd.org both as the top story under "District News" or through the News Room link at the bottom of the News box.
